Data Security on the Internet

General Information

Please take into consideration that the World Wide Web is a publicly accessible system. Each time personal information is made available online this is done at your own risk. Your data might be lost under way or may be accessible to unauthorised third persons.

Browsing

The Cheya Site is not configured to collect any identifiable personal information from the visitor while browsing on it. It collects information for general statistical purposes only. Unless you voluntarily provide Cheya with your Personal Information (for example your first and last name, title, mailing address, e-mail address, telephone and fax number, language, employer, business title, divers preferences regarding accommodation and travel habits or other personal identifying information) it will not be available to Cheya.

Internet Protocol (IP) Address

Every time you browse the Internet an IP address is automatically assigned to your computer. When users request a page from the Cheya Site, Cheya' servers log the user's current IP address. IP addresses are used to diagnose problems.

Cookie and Analytic Technologies

The Cheya Site uses 'cookie' technology; cookies, invisible pixels, web beacons and other technologies to obtain information about you. These cookies are designed to facilitate your visit on Cheya' site. A cookie is a text file that is sent to your browser from a web server and stored on your computer's hard drive. Cookies are used to prevent the same user from making repeated enrollments in Cheya' Guest Book. It assigns the computer a unique identifier which becomes your identifier when you return to the Site and related sites. You may adjust your Internet browser to reject cookies; however, rejecting cookies might affect your ability to perform certain transactions. Information collected from invisible pixels is used and reported in the aggregate.

Encryption System

When you provide Personal Information as for example your name, address or credit card number while making a reservation, your information is encrypted when travelling over the Internet. After your information reaches Cheya it is stored on a secure server that resides behind a firewall. The firewall is designed to block access to this data from outside Cheya.

Personal Data and Privacy

Data protection is very important to Cheya and the Personal Information (any information relating to you) of our customers is treated absolutely confidential. When we need to collect information from you, we generally ask you to voluntarily supply us with the required data. This data will not be made accessible to third parties except if required by law, by court or by a regulatory authority.

Furthermore, your Personal Information will only be processed for the purposes indicated at the time of collected as indicated in the Privacy Policy or as evident under the circumstances. Please note your acceptance of our Privacy Policy is a condition of these Legal Terms and Conditions.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

By accessing and using any services of the Cheya Site, the user and Cheya agree that all matters relating to and / or any disputes arising out of the user's access to, or use of the Cheya Site shall be governed by and interpreted and construed and enforced exclusively in accordance with the substantive domestic laws of Türkiye Cumhuriyeti.
